THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, THURSDAY, NOV 9 1865 NO. 306.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

Sergeant Crow.

Some people there are who belong to mankind—men of world-wide fame, of cosmopolitan reputation. Of the subject of this article we will not say quite so much, but certainly through the length and breadth of the late Confederacy, so called, there is no city or hamlet, village or hovel, wherein the name of this gentleman is not familiar enough to make him a local item. Albeit that Castle Thunder no longer acknowledges him as its St. Peter—although no longer landlord of a National Hotel—although no longer a bugbear to thousands of way-worn soldiers—still Serg't Crow is not forgotten. Quite the reverse. How many a returned rebel, (thus denominated) in his uneasy dreams, doth imagine himself the ragged Johnny of other days, and see the grim, dark walls and "animated animalcules" floors of that Beauregian edifice? Was he a gallant soldier?—had Gen. Lee, with kind appreciation of the fact, accorded him a thirty day furlough? lo! he must

"Live in Castle Thunder,
And board with Sergeant Crow."

in transitu.

And thus it fell that nearly every man in the Bill-Arp-Christened defunct nationality, the so called Confederacy, was personally acquainted with the lineaments, position and duties of Serg't Crow. The criminal, convicted of treason, (so called) reported to Serg't Crow. The Esau, hankering after the fish pots of Egypt "across the lines," and caught in the act, was handed over to the tender mercies and loving kindnesses of Serg't Crow. The coward (so called) who couldn't stand the bullets of the Union, dragged the chain-shot of the Confederacy, under the personal supervision and direction of Serg't Crow.

In fact, with the Department of Henrico, it is our solemn belief that Serg't Crow had more to do than General (so called) Elzey, its nominal commander.

With a larger command, as a general thing, than any brigade commander in the field, Serg't Crow discharged all his non-commissioned duties with a commendable punctuality and fidelity (so called.) We verily believe that had Mr. Jefferson Davis been passing through Richmond with a furlough signed by Mr. Breckinridge, the subs of the Soldier's Home would have arrested his Excellency (late and so called) and consigned him to the extended hospitality and unlimited lodgings presided over by Serg't Crow.

We know not the lineage, the parentage, or the nativity of this renowned individual. We are unacquainted with his pedigree. (though that of his dog Hero is likely to be thoroughly understood by the whole nation,) but in that he was faithful to the end in his devotion to the Presidency of "Greybacks and Exemur," we pay this tribute to his memory, and enquire of our loyal Southern exchanges, "Where is Serg't Crow?" Tell us, oh ye Turpentiners, does he run a raft on Cape Fear river, crying "lumber and fruit," as his cargo of whortleberries and hoop-poles promiscs him a thundering spree in Wilmington?

Answer, "you-uns" from Georgey, does Serg't Crow, in russet brown, linger around your "swill shops," asking, in piteous tones, for Writight's spider wagons?

Ye "Gophirs" from Floridian everglades, say to me miserable, whether the raven cognomened Sergeant doth haunt your orange groves with Ophelian wanderings and lamentations after "the days that are no more?"

The grand army (so called) asks for its "scare-Crow." Where is he? What doth he? Does he keep a Crow-bar? Has he returned to his own barn-yard, and "guanoed eminence," (dung-hill, so called,) and is he Crowing still? Echo answers, dismally, "Is he?"

Oh, where is Sergeant Crow?

—Ex-President Buchanan's book is printed.

—Gold is found in quantities—quartz—in Lisbon, N. H.

—Wife beating is one of the popular offences in Nashville.

—The Moniteur newspaper sold in Paris for one million francs.

—A line of steamers is to be established between Paris and London.

—A man in London killed himself for grief at a quarrel with his sweetheart.

—The Queen of the Sandwich Islands paid a visit to Tennyson.

—Northern capitalists are carefully prospecting at Chattanooga, Tenn.

—The Earl of Strathmore had his life insured for a million dollars.

—The entire state dept of Tennessee, actual and contingent, is $25,277,406.

—President Juarez is a short, thick, fat man, black hair, brown eyes, and Indian features.

—Two French bishops—those of Marseilles and Vannes—have lately become insane.

—In the state of Connecticut there are 115 Baptist churches, of which only 76 have pastors.

—A woman residing near Pittsburg, Pa., has just been arrested for the murder of her three children.

—Gov. Smyth, of New Hampshire, has appointed the 30th inst., as a day of Thanksgiving.

—Secretary Seward and the French Minister have had two interviews this week.

—The President has appointed Col. John Taggart Internal Revenue Collector for the First District of Pennsylvania, in place of Mr. Harding, deceased.

—The Governor of Dakotah writes to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that there is no doubt of the desire of all the Indians in that territory for peace. The season, however, is too late for making treaties.

—The East Tennessee Railroad is yet unfinished. A large amount of rolling stock belonging to this Road, is at Danville, Va.

—A man in London has patented an illumination hat, to protect the wearer from being run over by cabs at night. What next?

—The whereabouts of the Confederate General Cooper is a mystery. He parted company with Jeff. Davis at Augusta, and since that time has never been heard from.

—A grandson of Lafayette is now in Boston, and is said to have made a short speech at a primary meeting of the Republicans the other evening, in the Eleventh ward of that city.

—The oilcloth factory of A. Folsom & Sons, in Biddeford, Me., was burned early yesterday morning. Loss $80,000, of which only about $12,000 is insured, principally in Hartford Companies. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

—The telegraph lately advised us that Mr. Chaves had been elected delegate to Congress from New Mexico, but it afforded us no idea of the meaning of the election.

Chaves, the Republican candidate, had over 2,800 majority, beating Perez, who was the late member. The vote appears to have been an unusually large one, Chaves polling over 8,000.—Eight of the ten counties in the Territory elect Republican delegates to the Legislature, so that we shall have a decided majority in that body.

THE "WILD REALM OF WILD REALITY."—A metaphysician in support of the hypothesis that dreaming may be controlled by the will, cites the example of his own case, from which we extract the following:

In those days I was given to what Mr. Addison, in one of his Spectators, calls "castle-building;" and in many an evening solitary walk, which was generally all the exercise I took, my thoughts would hurry me into some active scene, where I generally acquitted myself much to my own satisfaction; and in these scenes of imagination I performed many a gallant exploit. At the same time in my dreams I found myself the most arrant coward that ever was. Not only my courage, but my strength failed me in every danger; and I often rose from my bed in the morning in such a panic that it took some time to get the better of it. I wished very much to get rid of these uneasy dreams, which not only made me very unhappy in sleep, but often left a disagreeable impression on my mind for some part of the following day. I thought it was worth trying whether it was possible to recollect that it was all a dream, and that I was in no real danger. I often went to sleep with my mind as strongly impressed as I could with this thought, that I never in my life-time was in any real danger, and that every fright I had was a dream. After many fruitless endeavors to recollect this when the danger appeared, I effected it at last, and have often, when I was sliding over a precipice into the abyss, recollected that it was all a dream and boldly jumped down. The effect of this commonly was, that I immediately awoke. But I awoke calm and intrepid, which I thought a great acquisition. After this my dreams were never uneasy, and in a short time I dreamed not at all. During all this time I was in perfect health."

One cannot help thinking, however, what might have happened some day when the philosopher was near a precipice, had he, with characteristic abstraction, forgotton for a moment which state he happened then and there to be in.

THE CITY.

Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

THE FIRE.—The fire of Tuesday night, mentioned in yesterday morning's paper, was one of the most extensive conflagrations which has ever happened in our city. The fire originated in the grocery store of Mr. Williford Upchurch, in the interior of the building, and the police, who first discovered it, report that the flames had spread over the ground floor and reached the walls before they gained knowledge of the danger. They were very prompt in giving the alarm, and officers and soldiers of the army, as well as citizens, were exceedingly expert in reaching the scene of danger. But in spite of labor, and a thousand and one suggestions, the bright element increased in volume and spread with almost magical rapidity. It next attacked the tailoring establishment of Mr. F. King, then the grocery of Mr. L. H. Adams, and here it seemed that its progress might be stayed. Not so, however, for in a few moments, as if gaining new power, the fire-king reached Lynn Adams', then Bagwell & Harris', M. B. Royster's, leaping with great rapidity to the fine stores of J. Kinsey, Mr. Harrison, and Mr. Raven, sweeping away the intermediate tenement occupied as a barber-ship, and two dwellings. The entire block—fourteen houses—was now in flames, and being composed exclusively of wooden buildings, all effort to save them was abandoned.

Every energy was now devoted to confining the work of devastation to the boundary then already reached. The endeavor was successful, though at one time the aspect of affairs was so menacing that parties in the next block packed up and in some instances removed their wares.

Of the losses sustained by the parties transacting business in the burnt district, no reliable estimate can yet be made. The buildings were totally destroyed, and while there must have been a heavy loss of dry goods, groceries, etc., etc., it is gratifying to know that much was saved.

So far as inquiry has reached, we are not aware that there was a single cent of insurance on either houses or goods.

Mr. J. Kinsey requests us to make his acknowledgements to all who gave him such timely and valuable aid in the removal of his goods. His thanks are especially due Col. Robinson and Capt. A. M. Garoutte.

Officers Harward, Parker, Betts and others were present and active in the performance of duty.

HIGH RENTS.—Universal complaint is made of the exorbitant rents demanded by the owners of real estate in this city. It is driving from our midst many valuable men, and interfering most seriously with the commercial prosperity of the city. Raleigh can never become the New York of the South, but if proper means were used, the city might double in population and wealth. The rents of dwellings and business places are so enormous that men whose capital would add to the removal of the money pressure and give employment to idle hands are deterred from locating here. Men of enterprise, energy and means, already with us, feel alarmed at the enormity of exactions made of tenants by landlords. They regard such exhibitions as practical demonstrations of antedeluvian proclivities. If our people, then, desire to be built up and become prosperous, they must repudiate the essentially Japanese policy upon which they have shaped their transactions for the last six months. We tell them that fair and not exorbitant rents are to their interest, because they thus invite or retain here a population such as will make their revenue permanent. Otherwise there must necessarily be fluctuation, so that in ten years, under their present practices, the income from property will really be less than if present rates were not so extortionate.

We ask the owners of houses to think over these suggestions, assured in our own minds they will find them correct. Reduce your rents both from a sense of interest and duty. This is a season of general depression and the individual who contributes towards increasing its hardship is a devil incarnate. We see it in "those lamps," as Artemus Ward would say.

RECOVERED.—Our readers will remember that a short time since some one gained admission to the residence of Judge Saunders, on Hillsboro street, and took therefrom a bolt of cloth, several silk and other valuable dresses, jewelry and the like. We are glad to know that the thief has been caught, is in limbo, and the greater part of the stolen articles recovered.

This is the way—nothing like an energetic, quick scented police force. They are worth their weight in greenbacks when faithful to duty and we hope will ere long receive their reward.

TOTTEN'S PANORAMA.—Mr. Totten opens at Market Hall, this evening, with his panoramic views of the latest battles fought during the recent war, together with a museum of living curiosities. We have not seen either the paintings of the animals, but if the first have been executed with even a tolerable degree of artistic excellence, visitors will be trebly remunerated for their expenditure of both time and money.

ALCOHOL.—The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that alcohol made from beets is not subject to taxation, on the ground that the beet has already paid one tax.

"A LADY" writes us a sharp criticism on proprietors in Raleigh and thinks we were singularly mistaken in saying that "gentlemen congregated on the streets in groups much to the inconvenience as well as annoyance of ladies." She says "gentlemen" never do any such thing. We stand corrected.

HORSE STOLEN.—We learn that a valuable horse was stolen from Mr. H. W. Jones, near Rolesville, yesterday morning. Theft of horse flesh appears to be coming a mania hereabouts, as scarcely a day passes without such crimes coming to light. We only wish the rascals would turn up with equal promptitude.

A FEW MORE.—Benjamin W. Berry, William G. Fowler and Wm. A. Berry, of New Hanover county, and Samuel H. Winborne, of Hertford, are announced by the Governor as entitled to vote, to-day and in future elections, in accordance with an ordinance of the convention.

THE people should keep their tempers to-day. Whatever may be our political differences, let us as true men maintain our personal friendships and show that we are good neighbors. Conducting thus, we shall honor ourselves.

APPOINTED.—The county court has appointed Mr. David A. Wicker to take the tax list for Raleigh district. On the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th insts., parties concerned will find him in the Sheriff's office, at the court-house.

RETURN THEM.—The person to whom Lieut. Castleman entrusted his overcoat and boots at the fire on Tuesday night is known, and if he will return them to Mr. Randall at the Exchange Hotel, no questions will be asked.

THE COTTON MOVEMENT.—Business in cotton at all the shipping ports continues quite vigorous. At this port the receipts thus far in the current week have averaged 4,529 bales a day, making 119,046 bales since Oct. 1, against exports of 52,954 bales in the same time, leaving an estimated stock on hand, and on shipboard not cleared, of 154,000 bales.

Thus far in the current cotton year, beginning with Sept. 1, the receipts at all the shipping ports reach 300,000 bales (including 230,000 bales at this port) against exports of 187,000 bales, including 128,000 bales to Great Britain, 7,000 bales to France, and 2,000 bales to other foreign ports. The estimated stock on hand and on shipboard not cleared, at the shipping ports, at latest dates, was 336,000 bales.

ANCIENT TYPOS.—The Lebanon (Tenn) Register says that one of its "jours," W. L. Barry, has worked at the "case" sixty-seven years, and another, W. V. Tunstall, has "followed copy" fifty-five years. When death reads the last "proof-sheet" for these old typos, he should mark "errors" with a lenient ☞, and when their "forms" are "worked off" they should have a "free pass" to that "office" where there is no "jelling" for "rule and figure work," and "fat takes" are "hung on the hook," where the "galleys" are "proved" by the "foreman" and "corrected" by the "assistant," the "manuscript" all good, "subs" and "sorts" plenty, and where $ and £ never "run short." They have "made" many ¶ ¶ and seen many * * in their time, and perhaps have used the † and "shooting-stick" to "close" an argument; but their "copy" is about "up," their "cases empty," and but little is left now but to "measure" their "strings."

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9, 1865.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever.—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

Vote for Holden and Russ.

If the loyal people of North Carolina want to get back into the Union and to have civil law and prosperity again, let them vote for and elect Gov. Holden. We know that Andrew Johnson, and others high in authority, feel a deep personal interest in the result, and ardently desire Gov. Holden's election. With him at the helm, we can at once get back into the Union; but defeat him, and we have but little hope of such a result. Vote early, vote strong, and vote for Holden.

And don't forget Russ. Let every loyal man vote for Col. Russ for Congress. If we send such men as he is, we shall be represented in Congress, but if we send gentlemen there who are opposed to the administration we shall not get them in.

The Issue Distinctly made Up.

An expression of Northern sentiment upon the question of admitting Southern delegates to Congress, has been fully developed by two events, first, the reappearance of the Richmond Enquirer and its leading editorial against the non-assumption of the State Southern war debt, and the non-action of South Carolina with respect to the same subject. The views advanced in Monday's issue of the PROGRESS have been materially strengthened by developments of the last few days.

For example, "Occasional," having as the basis of his logic the article of the Enquirer above referred to, writes from Washington thus:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31, 1865.

Again we are having an illustration of the difficulty with which treason dies. Thousands who were ready to swear oblivion to all the angry passions born and bred in the rebellion, and who applauded the lavish generosity of President Johnson to those who came to ask pardon at his hands, find their warm impulses rebuked and chilled at the insolent protests against the congressional oath and the proofs of a wide-spread anxiety for the recoguition of the rebel war debt. The chagrin produced by this offensive ingratitude is not confined to the Republican or Union party. The Democrats at last see what little confidence is to be placed in the authors and engineers of the rebellion; and many who would have been foremost to make an issue upon the admission of the claimants to seats from the late insurgent districts, will now indignantly refuse to be made a convenience for any such unworthy purpose. The President, who has been quick to forgive, and slow to believe in bad faith, even in those who were ready to "Give his roof to the flames,

And his flesh to the eagles,"

has come forward to proclaim at once his public duty and his personal disappointment as to the Southern leaders. If, therefore, they are kept out of Congress for a long period, it cannot be worse for the country.

President Johnson's position is identical with the conditions which "Occasional" alleges to be essential to the reception of Congressmen from either of the reconstructing States. And herein is shown the sagacity, forecaste and wisdom of Gov. HOLDEN. Had he permitted the North Carolina Constitutional Convention to adjourn without a formal and final repudiation of the so-called rebel State debt, our position would have been like that of unfortunate South Carolina, whose prospect of representation at the next session of the national legislature is altogether hopeless.

Let us, then, testify our gratitude to Gov. Holden for thus guarding the State against one feature of calamity. The most fitting method of doing this will be our unanimous support at the polls to-day.

Remember,

That the Boston Post and Washington Chronicle both declare that the best interests of North Carolina will be subserved by the election of W. W. HOLDEN to the Governorship of the State. These two journals authoritatively represent the opinions and feelings of the members of Congress upon whose votes the reception of our Representatives depends.—Remember, then, that it is Holden and go back, or Worth and stay out.

Good Tidings from the West

And all other sections of the State have been pouring in upon us for ten days past. It is not to be doubted that go-back-into-the-Union-Holden will beat stay-out-Worth in the State by from fifteen to twenty thousand majority. This is not braggadocia but deduction from data which we deem entirely reliable. Remember this and help swell the majority for Holden.

It is a Remarkable Fact,

That in Jonathan Worth's own county, Randolph, all the candidates for the Legislature are Holden men. The partizans of the candidate of the Sentinel have not strength enough in the county of their champion's nativity even to venture upon a contest with the friends of Gov. Holden.

—Gen. Gordon, instead of establishing himself in the grocery business in Atlanta, will resume his old profession—the law.

—Enquiry having recently been made as to the whereabouts of the camels which the Government had in Texas before the war, the St. Louis Republican answers that Major General Curtis, of Iowa, appropriated two of them, which were recently on his farm.

The Louisville Democrat and Journal.

As a specimen of the amenities of the Kentucky press, we copy the following paragraphs:

You [illegible] Holden question, don't you oppose the policy of restoration? Didn't you say you were in favor of a general amnesty, by which, of course, the right of those who had been in rebellion to vote should be conceded to them?—Democrat.

You ill-smelling and well-stuffed old sack of poudrette, don't you know that the amnesty held out by the President to those who take the prescribed oath, does not embrace the right of voting?—Journal.

You diseased odor of a bad cat in bad health, didn't you know that the amnesty advocated by you, and even President Johnston's amnesty does not forbid the right of voting, or have you lost all your sense in your scents?—Democrat.

You old centre of all stupidity and scenter of all creation, you old uncorked bottle of the distilled essence of assafœtida, stink-weed, pole-cat and nigger, don't you know that if the amnesty recommended by us, and even President Johnson's, do not give the right of voting, they don't intermeddle with that right at all, but leave it to the States, where it properly belongs?

You old cess pool of six cities, don't you know that if we are for the repeal of the Kentucky expatriation law, it doesn't follow that we are not for the enactment of some other law which shall protect our State, as far as possible, against aggressions of the rebel spirit? A large class of non-voters in Kentucky, would be a very great evil, but we wouldn't have those to whom the present expatriation law applies clothed with the elective franchise, without taking a stringent oath of allegiance.

You mean old pointer and setter to Satan's men hunters.—You old effigy cut from a solid mass of guano, please mark that!—Journal.

If these men smell as bad as represented, we would prefer, so far as the scent is concerned, associating with hard-working negroes who wash their bodies about once in every six months.

PARDONS.—As there are many people now making a pilgrimage to Washington in search of pardon, we subjoin for their information, and the information of the curious, the form of paper, wherein is indited forgiveness of rebellious offences. Here it is:

Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America, to whom these presents shall come greeting:

Whereas, ——, of —— county, Virginia, by taking part in the late rebellion against the Government of the United States, has made himself liable to heavy pains and penalties;

And Whereas, the circumstances of his case render him a proper subject of Executive clemency;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, do hereby grant to the said —— a full pardon and amnesty for all offenses by him committed, arising from participation, direct or implied, in the said rebellion, conditioned as follows:

1. This pardon to be of no effect until the said —— shall take the oath prescribed in the proclamation of the President, dated May 29, 1865.

2. To be void and of no effect if the said —— shall hereafter, at any time, acquire any property in slaves, or make use of said labor.

3. That the said —— first pay all costs which may have accrued in any proceeding instituted or pending against his person or property before the date of the acceptance of this warrant.

4. That the said —— shall not, by virtue of this warrant, claim any property, or the proceeds of any property, that has been sold by the order, judgment, or decree of a court under the confiscation laws of the United States.

5. That the said —— shall notify the Secretary of State, in writing, that he has received and accepted the foregoing pardon.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this —day of —, A. D. 1865, and of the independence of the United States, the ninetieth.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

WATERFALLS.—Some female students of the beautiful, shave their heads—some wear pig tails—some one ornament, some another; but the waterfall is the most recent, and, we may add, excruciating invention which has adorned the age and excited the admiration of mankind.

The popular notion about this bedevilment of feminine heads, is that it owes its origin to foreign ingenuity; but the fact is that it is indigenous to the soil of Virginia. Its antiquity can be traced back at least to 1728, as will be seen by reference to the Westover Manuscripts, p. 35, where Col. Byrd, after painting the squaws "wrapped in their red and blue match coats," as he saw them on a visit to the chief town of the Nottoway tribe, says: "Their hair was braided in white and blue peak, and hung gracefully in a large roll upon their shoulders."

It will thus be seen that the prevailing fashion is nothing but a reproduction of one in vogue among the dark-eyed damsels of the Nottoway tribe something like 187 years ago. Verily, there is nothing new under the sun—not even waterfalls.—Petersburg Index.

HEAVY EXPORTS.—The returns of export clearances from the Custom-house, for the week ending on Tuesday evening, make up the extraordinarily heavy aggregate of $6,608,467 in currency, or about one hundred per cent. more than the total for the corresponding week of last year. Included in the week's exports have been 14,621 bales of cotton, valued at $3,528,735 in lawful money. Of this amount 12,450 bales, of the currency value of $3,001,449, were shipped to Liverpool; 1,741 bales, valued at $480,898, to Cork, doubtless "for orders," as the freight brokers phrase it; and 430 bales, valued at $91,898, to Havre. These enormous shipments of domestic produce must favorably affect our foreign trade balances, increase the supply of exchange, lessen the demand for gold, and vastly aid the chief financial agent of the government in his commendable efforts to restore the national finances to a specie basis.—N. Y. Times.

THE DEFEAT OF THE LIBERALS AT MATAMOROS.—It appears that the Liberals, who, for some time, had been holding the city of Matamoros under a close siege, have suffered a serious defeat and repulse in attempting to carry the place by storm. The probability is now that the Imperialists will follow up their success, and push President Juarez and his government establishment from El Paso over the border into the United States. In that event, as the only de facto government existing in Mexico will be that of Maximilian, what is Mr. Seward to do? We presume that Mr. Seward is ready to do anything to keep on peaceable terms with Louis Napoleon; but we guess that with the meeting of Congress President Johnson will call the attention of the two houses to the Monroe doctrine and the necessity of some action on their part, and that his recommendations will be promptly and fully adopted.

FIRE.—We learn that the residence of Mr. John Thompson, situated in the northern part of the city, was entirely destroyed by fire on yesterday. We have not heard any particulars.—Wil. Journal.

ELECTION NOTICES.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF WAKE COUNTY.—[illegible] date for a seat in the [illegible] Commons, I take this method of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, my efforts on [illegible] be for the strictest and most economical management of all State and county affairs. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, [illegible] known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them myself. I [illegible] to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to [illegible] you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.
The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.
He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people. I shall represent your sentiments on all constitutional measures, if they are known to me.
I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.
It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Mose, and Buck Moore.
Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A. WICKER.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged made several experiments in regard to the most scientific mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts were successful—the articles being approved and used by the Medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before I chose to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against being advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but finally the advice of friends and those who had used them overcame objection was overcome.

After years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Recourse has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers, basing their merit and success have been known—such as buying large bottles at less price, censuring all preparations, and even copying my advertisements I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and to warn dealers, believing, after so many years' experience that the Druggists will discountenance such impositions, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones. Hoping that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"I am personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, and affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and success at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"We were on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, we was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest in every kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing—so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful as a sample evidence of the merits of his articles—as the whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising and bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements made in regard to his articles must be correct."

[Sunday Mercury.]

"The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by naming the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

Gentlemen—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

The most reliable protection from fire now known.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Chief Engineer Freeman, late of the Confederate privateer "Alabama," has been pardoned on recommendation of Capt. Winslow, U. S. Navy.

Mr. Rayner's Letter.

It seems that the late letter of Hon. Kenneth Rayner to a friend in Washington, published in our columns, a few days since, has excited very considerable attention throughout the North. It has been very extensively published. The moderate presses of the North speak of the letter and of its author in the highest terms of praise. The New York Tribune has a long review of it, which it introduces with the following remarks:

"The North knows the Hon. Kenneth Rayner, and has known him these twenty years, as one of the most moderate and fair-minded of Southern politicians. He stood up against the annexation of Texas—condemned the repudiation of the Missouri compact—regarded the Lecompton Constitution, with the whole series of outrages whereby Kansas was sought to be dragged into the embrace of slavery, with undisguised abhorrence—and was always less hard upon us than a Northern doughface with respect to the Right of Petition. There was no slaveholder in all the South who clung more tenaciously to the Union, or evinced a more abiding consciousness that Northern convictions of the righteousness and beneficence of Liberty were to be duly regarded, as well as Southern prejudices in behalf of slavery, if the Union was indeed to be preserved."

PEARLS AND RUBIES.—White teeth cropping from out of ridges of ruby, a breath spicy as the airs from Araby the Blest. Who can resist such fascinations? To realize them, to perpetuate them, to make the mouth a casket of pearls and rubies, and every sigh a gush of fragrance, all you have to do, fair ladies, is to use that matchless vegetable preparation, Fragrant SOZODONT.

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.
By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.

AN ORDINANCE

To give publicity to the Ordinance ordering Elections on the 2nd Thursday in November next:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained, That the Provisional Governor be empowered and requested to take such steps as in his judgment may be necessary to make known to the people of North Carolina the ordinances ordering elections, on the 2nd Thursday of November, 1865. [Read three times, and ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D. 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Declaring null and void the ordinance of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one:

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the good people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the twenty-first day of November, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly, ratifying and adopting amendments to the said Constitution, are now and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof, have been in full force and effect; notwithstanding the supposed ordinance of the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, declaring that the same be repealed, rescinded and abrogated; and the said supposed ordinance is now and at all times hath been null and void. (Ratified in Convention, this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.)

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Prohibiting Slavery in the State of North Carolina:

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That Slavery and involuntary servitude, otherwise than for crimes, whereof the parties shall have been duly convicted, shall be and is hereby forever prohibited within the State.

(Ratified in Convention, this Ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Submitting to the qualified voters of the State, the ratification or rejection of certain ordinances:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That on the second Thursday of November next, shall be submitted to the voters of the State qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, for their ratification or rejection, the Ordinance passed by this Convention, entitled "an Ordinance declaring null and void the Ordinance of May the 20th, 1861," and such persons as shall favor the ratification, shall vote a ticket with the words, "Anti-Secession Ordinance, Ratified," and those opposed shall vote a ticket in the words, "Anti-Secession Ordinance, Rejected." Also at the same time shall be submitted for their ratification or rejection an Ordinance passed by the Convention, entitled "an Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina," and those who favor a ratification of the same shall vote a ticket with the words, "Anti-Slavery Ordinance Ratified," and those opposed shall vote a ticket with the words "Anti-Slavery Ordinance, Rejected."

Be it further ordained, That the Sheriffs or other Officers who may ascertain the result of the polls in each County, shall transmit the same to the Provisional Governor, who is hereby empowered and requested to cause the number of votes each way to be ascertained and proclaimed through as many as three newspapers published in different parts of the State.

Be it further ordained, That, if ratified, thenceforth and Ordinances shall be the laws of the land, and that abolishing slavery shall become a part of the Constitution of the State. [Read three times and ratified in Convention, October 17, A. D., 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly to be convened on the third Monday of November, 1865, and for electing Representatives in Congress, and Governor of the State:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same. That a General Assembly of the State shall be convened on the fourth Monday of November, 1865, the members whereof shall hold their places till the next election of such members, which shall be held on the first Thursday of August, 1866.

Be it further ordained, That the Provisional Governor is hereby authorized and requested to issue forthwith to the sheriff of each County, a writ directing that an election be held for the Senators and members of the House of Commons of said General Assembly, on the second Thursday of November next, under the rules, regulations and provisions of chapter 53 of the Revised Code.

Be it further ordained, That immediately on the receipt of the writ, each Sheriff shall summon the Justices of the Peace of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to assemble at the court house on day appointed by him, which shall be as early as practicable; and they or so many as may assemble, shall appoint inspectors for each place of election, who shall be forthwith notified of their appointment by the Sheriff, and they shall conduct the elections and make returns of the polls in the manner prescribed in said chapter.

Be it further ordained, That each member and voter shall be qualified according to the now existing constitution of the State. Provided, however, That no one shall be eligible to a seat or be capable of voting, who being free in all respects, shall not before the twenty-ninth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, either have voluntarily taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Lincoln, with the purpose to suppress the insurrection and restore the authority of the United States, and thenceforward shall have observed the same or shall not have taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Johnson bearing date twenty-ninth of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and who moreover, shall not in either case be of those who are excepted from the Amnesty granted by any of the said proclamations, unless pardoned: but provided also, That all persons who may have preferred petitions for pardon, shall be deemed to have been pardoned if the fact of being pardoned, shall be announced by the Governor, although the pardon may not have been received: and provided also, that the payment of a public tax shall not be required as a qualification of the voter in the elections in November next.

Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of ascertaining the qualifications of persons proposing to vote, the inspectors may and it shall be their duty whenever the vote may be challenged, or they shall have cause to suspect that he is not duly qualified, examine him and others on oath touching the question.

Be it further ordained, That at the same time and place, elections shall be held for seven Representatives in the Congress of the United States, in pursuance of chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Code, which shall be conducted under the rules and regulations therein prescribed for such elections, and the voters in said elections shall be such only as shall be qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, and the Provisional Governer shall give the certificate required by the ninth section of said chapter.

Be it further ordained, That at the same time and place, an election shall be held for a Governor of the State, under the same rules and regulations prescribed in chapter fifty-three of the Revised Code, and the persons qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons under the ordinance, shall be qualified to vote for Governor.

Be it further ordained, That no person shall be eligible as Governor unless he shall be qualified according to the Constitution of the State and also shall be capable under the provisions of this ordinance of voting for members of the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That the Governor thus elected shall take his seat so soon as the authority of the Provisional Governor shall cease, either before the first day of January eighteen hundred and sixty-six or afterwards, before the first day of January eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Be it further ordained, That the Governor thus elected shall continue in office till the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Be it further ordained, That it shall be in the power of the General Assembly to modify so much of this ordinance as relates to the provisions for electing a Governor and his term of office. [Ratified in Convention this tenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To divide North Carolina into seven Congressional Districts:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That, for the purpose of electing representatives in the Congress of the United States, the State shall be divided into seven districts, as follows: The first district shall be composed of the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimmons, Gates, Chowan, Hartford, Northampton, Halifax, Martin, Bertie, Washington, Tyrrell, Hyde and Beaufort, The second district of the counties of Pitt, Craven, Jones, Lenoir, Wayne, Green, Edgecombe, Wilson, Onslow, Carteret, Duplin and New Hanover. The third district of the counties of Brunswick, Columbus, Bladen, Sampson, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Harnett, Moore, Montgomery, Anson and Stanly. The fourth district of the counties of Wake, Franklin, Warren, Granville, Orange, Nash, Johnston and Chatham. The fifth district of the counties of Alamance, Randolph, Guilford, Rockingham, Davidson, Forsythe, Stokes, Surry, Person and Caswell. The sixth district of the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus, Union, Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln, Catawba, Iredell, Davie, Yadkin, Wilkes and Alexander. The seventh district of the counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancey, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay, each of which districts shall be entitled to elect one Representative in the Congress of the United States.

SECTION 2. The election for Representatives in Congress shall be held and conducted, in every respect, in conformity with the rules and regulations and restrictions, as set forth and prescribed in the Sixty-Ninth Chapter of the Revised Code, except that the polls shall be compared in the first district at the Court-House in the county of Chowan; in the second district, at the Court-House in the county of Lenoir; in the third district, at the Court-House in the county of Cumberland; in the fourth district, at the Court-House in the county of Wake; in the fifth district, at the Court-House in the county of Guilford, in the sixth district, at the Court-House in the county of Iredell; in the seventh district, at the Court-House in the county of Buncombe. [Read three times and Ratified in Convention, the —— day of October, 1865.] EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

For the election of Clerks and Sheriffs.

Be it ordained by the good people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, That an election be held for Sheriffs and County and Superior Court Clerks on the same day and at the same time and places, that the election for members of the General Assembly shall take place, and in the same manner as heretofore prescribed for the election of such officers: Provided that all persons qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons shall be qualified to vote for these officers.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That said officers shall have all the qualifications heretofore required.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That they shall enter on the duties of their office as soon as the Provisional Government expires, and hold said offices until further provided for by the General Assembly. [Read three times and ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D., 1865.] E. G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the election of two members of the House of Commons from the county of Cumberland, and one from the county of Harnett.

Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That until otherwise provided by law, the county of Cumberland shall elect two members to the House of Commons, and the county of Harnett one member, the elections to be held in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by law for the election of members to the House of Commons; Provided that nothing in this ordinance shall change the representation of the two counties in the Senate, but they shall vote together for one Senator until the next apportionment of Senatorial Districts. [Ratified in Convention this 17th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]
